

Emancipatory Disability Research in Brazil:
A Legacy from Participatory
Anthropology, Disability Studies, and the Occupational Therapy without Borders
Movement

PROFESSOR

PAMELA BLOCK

Friday, May 2, 2025
15:00-17:00

Department of Anthropology,
Faculty of Social Science,
University of Western Ontario, CA

VENUE : # Large-size Meeting Room
Inamori Memorial Foundation Building (third floor), Kyoto University
<https://www.asafas.kyoto-u.ac.jp/access/>

STYLE : All presentations will be given hybrid (on-site & online)

Discussant : AMO Kae

Participation application URL

<https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLSdyJxu60QMVChsK4UOMuGIHAqzyHDHTSNjLGCGcCTQU4EOpMg/viewform>

Professor Block has documented the lives of people with albinism in Brazil, and will use related ethnography and video research to provide an overview of disability activism and intersectionality, which are used to advocate for the rights of people with disabilities and improve their well-being.

Presentations will be given in English.

